Peters' Musical Monthly.

PURCHASERS of music will consult their own interests by subscribing to Peters' Musical Monthly. It is issued on the first of each month, and gives all the latest and best Music, by such authors as Hays, Kinkel, Thomas, Bishop, Danks, Becht, Frey, Keller, Wyman, etc. Every number contains at least Twelve Pieces of new and good Music, printed on fine white paper and from full size music plates, every piece of which is afterward printed in sheet form, from the same plates, and sold from 25 to 30 cents each, and all we ask for this valuable magazine is 30 cents a copy, $3 a year, $1.50 for six months; and we guarantee to every yearly subscriber at least 32 pages of choice new music, by the best authors.
$60 for $3.

We do not expect Peters' Musical Monthly to pay us as a Magazine, because we give too much music for the money. It is issued simply to introduce our new music to the musical world. Our subscribers sing and play the music we give them. Their musical friends hear the music, like it, and buy it in sheet music form, where we make our profit. Remember! every yearly subscriber gets, during the year, at least 150 pieces of our best music, all of which we send in sheet print in sheet form, and sell for over $30. It is published at the Mammoth Music Store of J. L. Peters, 509 Broadway, New-York, where every thing in the music line can be had. No matter how small your order, it will be promptly attended to.
Sample copies can be seen at the office of this paper.

CYNTHIANA. - - - MARCH 17, 1870

A. J. MOREY, EDITOR.

[For the Cynthiana News.

An Expostulation.

Long years ago in the far East, towards where the rosy dawn first heralds the approach of the king of day, arousing the sleeping millions of the dreary earth, man, beast, bird and insect.

In the Holy City, erst, known as Jebus, while one in sacerdotal robes ministered within the veil, in the Holy of Holies, 'twas thus revealed:
To thee a son shall soon be given, filled with the spirit from his birth.

Fore-runner he of him long promised.

Nazareth, also, favored was, by heavenly visitant, to Mary sent, revealing to her most wondrous things, how she, though virgin, should honored be, as mother of the Son of God 'Immanuel,' 'blessed of all nations called.' Time brought fulfillment of those visions, and in the fulness of time, from Judah's hills and wooded mountains came, 'The voice of one crying in the wilderness,' prepare His way, behold He cometh, regent and be baptized, prepare to meet your king. To Jordan came he (more than prophet afterwards pronounced, by him who 'spoke as never man had spoke,' Mat. 11 chap.
9 verse,) and in its waves baptized the throng who hung upon his words.
(Matt. 3rd and 6th verse).

Came also He, Son of Mary, and baptism asked, and when baptized, up out of the water came, and Heaven approved the deed, (Matt.
3rd and 11th,) by highest attestation.
No organ sounded out the chant from tall Cathedral galleries in honor of the high occasion, nor velvet cushions sought the Son of God, on which to kneel, lest His vesture should be soiled, nor shunned He Jordan's classic shore to tread, or its waves to enter, lest He 'indecent' should appear to criticising Pharisee or sneering Jew; but 'suffer it to be so now,' for much becoming 'tis all righteousness to fulfill. No fear of man deterred Him, nor venial seeking of the smiles of polite society tempted Him; but love of duty led Him, thus in the limpid wave all righteousness to complete.

Oh! doubting, wavering 'Senex,' why like doubting Thomas refuse to believe thy Saviour's act, and high example so plainly given thee? Why pervert the word of God, by His Evangelists, and seek by shallow shifts, and prolate meddling with His plain truth, to turn men's hearts from the shining way the Saviour went? Why seek to cover up 'neath rubbish foul, the revealed will of God, that substitutes, by mortal man invented for convenience and imagined decency's sake, (rather than for the truth's sake,) may have promiscuity.

If mysterious, Matthew's words be found though inspired of God, turn in thy honest search for truth, (if truth indeed thou seekest,) to the teachings of that learned apostle (of Tarsus, he, a citizen of no mean city), Him, met in the way on Damascus plains, by Him who late on Golgotha's hill had hung and died, and who too, had 'risen again,' whose presence bright, outshone the brightness of the noonday sun, and stirred the inquiry, what wilt thou have me do? 'Ask him of Tarsus, thus set apart, (Acts, 17-16,) and thus ordained, Christ's will to know and teach, that men might from him learn, and duty understand. Ask him the meaning to define of the much abused word, nor in darkness longer grope your way, nor in blindness longer walk, leading the blind.
What saith he?
'Buried with Him by baptism, into death,' (Rom. 6 and 4th).
'Buried with Him in baptism, wherein also ye are risen with Him,' (Col. 2 and 12th).

His simple definition take, him taught of God to teach, hear, hear reverently, and with an honest docile heart accept his teachings, nor proudly turn aside to darken counsel by mysterious explanations not needed, nor longer follow the foot steps of bloody mother Rome.

Dost thou still stiffen thy neck, and say by acts, if not by word!
John the forerunner, though freshly commissioned of Heaven, knew not his mission, and sought the flowing Jordan and the abundant waters of Enon, when had he known God's will, a bowl full had sufficed.

Knew not the Almighty Father His own will and high command, when from His shining throne, He spoke, as Jesus the Son came up out of the water? Thine act approved is, thou art my well beloved Son.

Why said He not? Thy sojourn with the sons of men the dull has made obtuse thy preception. Go put off thy garments, so needlessly, in-decently grabbed, thyself anew enrobe, with mantle unattainted, and sandals on thy feet. To the Temple now repair, and there, while Priests from parchment read aloud the liturgy, bow thyself on tapestried altar, and receive the consecrated drops, or moistened palm upon thy brow. Thus shalt thou decent at thy baptism be, and the approval shalt receive of admiring lookers on.

Said He this, or not, Senex? Or did He approve Him, in coming up out of the waters of Jordan? Tyro.

How can Repudiation be Reached?

A correspondent in Illinois wants to know how we could repudiate the great National War Debt Swindle.
We extract from his letter as follows:

Can we repudiate the bonds (United States bonds) in the hands of foreign individuals or foreign corporations. Can repudiation be accomplished by a vote of the people.
I am a subscriber for your paper and completely tied up to your opinions. I think I am asking a question that thousands are asking their friends every day.

It is the easiest thing in the world to repudiate—a million times easier than to pay!

There are numerous ways to bring this about without a direct vote of the people.

Let Congress continue its extravagance but one year longer, and we can not pay. Then repudiation comes of itself.

Refuse to provide means to pay the interest on United States bonds.
Then repudiation follows, for the bonds will be worthless if they bear no interest—then the cowardly hiding-places for wealth will be wiped out.

And why not?

These bonds are not actual wealth —they are simply notes the workingmen of the nation must pay, in time, with large interest each year in gold. Their worth is not based upon the value of the paper so much as upon the ability of a centralized Government to keep the people in slavery forever.

The holders of the bonds do not wish them paid, if they can only be allowed to hide their wealth therein, escape taxation, and be supported by the honest toil of better men than themselves.

We can repudiate by sending men to Congress who will repeal the entire batch of Revenue laws, where by bondholders obtain their interest.

We can repudiate on the ground of national necessity, as the administration robbed under plea of military necessity—repudiation to relieve the people from over taxation to benefit idleness.

To repudiate is simply to cut the chain that binds labor to servitude to support idleness—to relieve us of a debt as the war wiped out slavery—as the Revolution relieved us from British taxation. It is the duty of a man to care for his own—to invest his money to benefit the country.

What if men in foreign countries hold our bonds?

Americans hold Mexican bonds—railroad bonds—steamship bonds.
United States bonds, like all others, were bought on speculation—for no other purpose. If they are paid, they are a good investment. If not, they are bad. As is the case with other bonds, Mexican bonds are held in this city—they are worthless.
Fenian bonds are held here—they are worthless. Railroad bonds are held here oil stock ditto—all worthless. And then what? No one suffers but the speculators who thought to make money by them. Honest labor suffers nothing.

We have more than a thousand dollars' worth of United States bonds (continental money), long repudiated by our Government, which refused to redeem it. But what of it?
The country is better off by not paying these bills—else why not pay them?

We can repudiate by funding the debt at one per cent. interest—payable, principal and interest in five hundred years. The debt will be as good as now, and money will not then seek these bonds as a hiding-place.

We can repudiate by refusing to pay taxes. By shaving the ears from every United States Revenue Assessor and tax collector in the land—by sending them down to the Washington Hell to make out their reports!

'The people refuse to pay taxes to support bondholders who pay no taxes.'

Then Government will repudiate —or attempt to enforce collection—then comes a revolution from which States and people will emerge relieved of an infamous war debt swindle, and the country will prosper just as it did after we repudiated the war debt of the Revolution, and declared the continental money but a worthless joke of a people who by this means gained their liberty.

And if England wants pay for the bonds she holds, we will let her come over here and obtain a receipt for our Alabama claims.

Down with the United States tax collectors. Pitch them into ponds—refuse to pay taxes—save your money, compel bonded aristocrats to work as other people do.

Repudiate the debt—it is a league with hell and a covenant with death!

It is a league between thieves to rob labor of its reward, and compel the poor to support the rich.—N. Y.
Democrat.

Approaching a Military Despotism.

Although there is unmistakable evidence of the growing weakness and the steady decay of the vital powers of the Mongrel party, the spirit of despotism is as rampant as ever. We recognize a disposition to shackle the Northern States. We see a gradual encroachment of the Federal power; the spirit of centralization creeping northward. The debates in Congress show it. The bold discussions touching New York State appointments indicate the future intention of Grant and his back-ers, if he is not summarily checked by the people. The army in the South is to be kept up; and the next move we see, will be, under one pretence or another, government soldiers in the Northern States. Perhaps, merely a temporary matter at first; but ere we realize it, it will become a permanent and solidly established fact, like the military outrage upon the people of the South.

There is one thing the voters and tax-payers had better understand at once, and commence to figure out: 'Nigger equality,' as long as the attempt to enforce it is maintained, will entail an army of idle soldiers; and if nigger equality is made a practical fact at the ballot boxes of the North, men with muskets in their hand will be kept by the Government in the North, to secure the Mongrels the fruits of this nigger suffrage idea, and upon this idea will grow up a huge standing army to eat up the substance of the people, and wear out the bone and muscle of honest industry. The standing armies of Europe have already brought the large States of the continent to the verge of bankruptcy. The yearly army and navy expenditures of the countries of Europe foot up $300,000,000 per year, gold, and the interest on the capital invested in army and navy establishments amounts to $165,394,000 gold. The value of the labor of the soldiers now lost to Europe in the pursuit of arms, is placed at $720,000,000 per year; and thus the armies and navies of Europe entail a loss of products of necessity and luxury to the great world, of not less than about $1,200, 000,000 per year. The wars of Europe, from 1853 to 1866, a period of thirteen years only, are computed by Dr. Engel, of the Berlin Statistical Journal, to have cost the lives of 1,750,000 men. As this is held by the more liberal minded statesmen of Europe to be a most lamentable array of statistics, what must they think of our footings for a war of only four years? Over $3,000,000, 600 debt, 2,000,000 of men killed and maimed, and the entire country plunged into commercial and social anarchy!—Day Book.

Returns from the New York town elections show great Democratic gains. The revival is general and not confined to any particular section of the State. Towns have gone Democratic this year that have been opposition since Gen. Taylor's time.

Silence in the court room, there, thundered a police magistrate the other morning: 'the court has already committed four prisoners without being able to hear a word of testimony.'

Kind words cost but little, and may make some one happy.

Reduction of Wages.

WHY STRIKES ARE FAILURES?

The New York Star, which is an organ of the working people, says that it is a fact apparent to all who have watched the course of our markets, that prices of many commodities, following the downward course of the gold premium, are being reduced. It is also apparent that this is making itself felt in the wages of labor. During the past season there has been less for the laboring classes to do than formerly, and large numbers of mechanics have been and are constantly being thrown out of employment. In the building trade nothing like the present stagnation has been experienced for at least seven years past, and thousands of men, whose services have hitherto been in active demand, are now vainly seeking work. This has caused a glut in the labor market, and employers are everywhere reducing wages, intelligence of which is brought us by our exchanges from nearly every section of the country.
The labor strikes at present, particularly in this city, are, with hardly an exception, to prevent a decrease of pay, while last season they were generally to secure increased pay.
The mechanic who last summer was not content with what he was receiving but struck for a more righteous compensation, is now quite satisfied if his wages are not reduced.
There is no disguising the fact that the condition of affairs renders it morally impossible that a reduction of wages can be prevented in many of the trades, so many idle hands being ready and anxious to step into the places of strikers, so that, as a result, it is found that many of the strikes this season are failures.

FASHIONABLE GOSSIP.

Love at First Sight—A Shoemaker's Daughter Captivates a Foreign Official.

Here is a sprightly bit of fashionable gossip. Pierre Bonaparte has become famous for marrying a saddle-maker's daughter and shooting an offensive editor. The first act was regarded as a noble piece of heroism on his part. A certain young foreign gentleman, residing in this city, has furnished almost a parallel to Pierre Bonaparte's honorable conduct toward a saddle-maker's daughter. The story is this: The young gentleman was walking down Pennsylvania Avenue about three or four weeks ago, enjoying a pleasant promenade along our Washington Broadway, when his attention was suddenly attracted by a very pretty girl standing in the doorway of a shoe store. Our hero was fascinated instantly. It was literally love at first sight. On pretence of making some purchases in the leather line he entered the store, engaged in conversation with the maiden and discovered she was the daughter of the proprietor. Our hero found excuses for making sub-

Court Day in Cynthiana.

Mr. Editor:—I see in your paper of March 3, a call on me to become a candidate for Police Judge. In response I have to say, I am in the hands of my friends. If elected I pledge myself to discharge the duties of the office faithfully and impartially to the best of my ability. Respectfully, Ring's Vegetable Ambrosia.

Much has been said of the "Maid with Golden Hair." No song, however, has yet been able to make that color a popular one for any considerable length of time. Light red, faded or sandy hair are equally under the ban of public opinion. We are happy to announce to our readers, that three applications of Ring's Vegetable Ambrosia will give them beautiful auburn tresses possessing all that soft, lustrous appearance so desirable in this chief adornment of female beauty.

A New Industrial Journal.
The Technologist is the title of a new Industrial Journal, devoted to Engineering, Manufacturing and Building, that comes to us freighted with valuable articles. The distinguishing feature of this Journal is the fact that all the Articles and Illustrations are original—no clippings or old engravings being used. The Publishers further pledge themselves that no advertising articles (that is, no descriptive puffs of worthless inventions) shall be inserted in its columns under any circumstances whatever; and, if they fulfil this pledge, they will certainly do a grand thing for the industrial journalism of the country, for every intelligent mechanic knows that indiscriminate puffing is the bane of our mechanical and so-called scientific periodicals.

The number before us consists of forty-four large pages, and it is printed on very superior paper, and in the best style of the typographic art. Altogether, it is the finest-looking journal of practical science now before the public. The articles, too, are of unusual excellence, and contain matter calculated to instruct and interest all classes. The titles of a few of the subjects discussed are—Technological Education, Tempering Steel, Trial of Steam Engines, Improvement in Distillation, Sunless and Airless Dwellings, the Measurement of Electrical Resistance, Vision and the Stereoscope, the Walks of New York Central Park, East River Bridge Caissons, the Microscope, Lessons on Drawing, Relation of Technology to Insurance, etc., etc.

The yearly subscription is Two Dollars and the price of single numbers Twenty Cents, a sum that seems ridiculously small when compared with the size and character of the Journal. It must require an enormous circulation to make the enterprise pay at these figures, and it is pleasant to see that the Publishers have sufficient faith in our American workmen to lead them to undertake it.

The Technologist is issued by the Industrial Publication Company, whose office is at 176 Broadway, New York. Every mechanic ought to send for at least one number of this Journal. If they send for one, it will be strange if they do not send for the others.

HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED.
J. LEWIS, (254 pages). The Medical Companion and Guide to Health, on the radical cure of Superstition, or Sexual Weakness, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc., and the Venereal and Syphilitic Maladies, with plain and clear directions for the speedy cure of Secondary Symptoms, Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, and all diseases of the skin, such as Scoury, Scrofula, Eczema, Boils, Blisters, and pimples on the face and body. Consumption, Epilepsy and Fits, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance.

The celebrated author, in this admirable Treatise, clearly demonstrates, from a forty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, can be effectually cured, cheaply, privately and radically.

This Book should be in the hands of every young man and every man in the land.
